

Jazzenzo 10 juli 2010 by Mischa Andriessen

Review of concerts NorthSea Jazzfestival 2010

.....The concert of the Ad Colen Quartet was much more swinging. This group has produced a very strong cd and they interpreted the compositions very strong live. Tricky customer is such a piece. Although it is full of tricky turns it keeps coming back in your head.

Colen plays very fluently with a natural feel of passion. This suits well with the flexible playing of bassist Wiro Mahieu and drummer Yonga Sun. With his playfully and original style of playing, pianist Gé Bijvoet shows that this music doesn't go for the easy way, it's real a work of human art.

Beautiful.